

FUN AT THE FORT

COME TO FORT CONCHO FOR SOME SUMMER FUN!

Plants of the Pioneers

Wednesday, June 14

Step back in time and learn all about the amazing uses of plants! Find out how the pioneers used the plants native to Texas for food and medicine. We will make some fun projects to take home. Taught by Susan Perry, Native Plant Society.

9:30 am - 12 noon, Barracks 6-Courtyard, ages 6-12

Digging in the Dirt

Wednesday, June 21

Become an archeologist! Come dig for clues in the dirt, learn to throw an atlatl and make some neat crafts to take home.

Taught by Callan Clark and members of the Concho Valley Archaeology Society.

9:30 am - 12 noon, Barracks 6-Courtyard, ages 6-12

Southwest Indians

Wednesday, July 12

Come listen to tales and legends of the Southwest Indians. Visit a teepee, sample Indian foods and create your own crafts to take home. Taught by Joyce Gray, local historian.

9:30 am - 12 noon, Barracks 6-Courtyard, ages 6-12

Join the Infantry!

Wednesday, July 26

Enlist and be a soldier for a day! Learn to march and drill, sample hardtack and take home a souvenir of your trip to the past. Taught by Fort Concho staff and volunteers.

9:30 am - 12 noon, Barracks 6-Courtyard, ages 6-12
