

FUN AT THE FORT

Come to Fort Concho for some summer fun!

Southwest Indians

Wednesday, June 26

Come listen to tales and legends of the Southwest Indians. Visit a teepee, sample Indian foods and create your own crafts to take home. Taught by Joyce Gray, local historian.
9:30 am - 12 noon, Officers' Quarters 8, ages 6-12

Join the Infantry!

Wednesday, July 10

Enlist and be a soldier for a day! Learn to march and drill, learn about a soldier's life in the 1800s and take home a forge cap as a souvenir of your trip to the past. Taught by Fort Concho staff and volunteers.
9:30 am - 12 noon, Barracks 6-Courtyard, ages 6-12

Come In My Kitchen

Wednesday, July 17

Step into the kitchen of Officers' Quarters 6 and help us make some tasty treats from long ago. There will be lots of hands on fun with yummy results to enjoy! Taught by Fort Concho staff and volunteers.
9:30 am - 12 noon, Officers' Quarters 6, ages 6-12

Drawing with Light:

Wednesday, July 24

Early Photography/Science of Light in mid 19th century
Come learn about the reflection and refractions of light, how the early photographic processes worked, and the chemistry behind the process. You will handle early photographs (daguerreotypes and ambrotypes), learn the science of bending light in the lenses and focusing the light with period cameras, and see how it all comes together for a photograph. Taught by Cody Mobley, Site Manager Fort McKavett State Historic Site
9:30 am - 12 noon, Officers' Quarters 8, ages 6-12

ALL CLASSES ARE $15 EACH, $12 FOR FORT CONCHO MEMBERS
