

Schoolhouse/Chapel: The last building built at Fort Concho was the Schoolhouse. Another officer quarters was in the process but they decided it was no longer necessary. The chaplain asked to turn the foundation for the kitchen into the schoolhouse and chapel. That building was finished in 1879 and is still at the fort today!

Soldiers and children alike wished to learn. Subjects included arithmetic, reading, writing, and history. The Children could list all 19 of the presidents in 1880. There are now more than 40 presidents in our history. Can you list them all?
